Day 218

The Rescue

Can you climb a ladder?
Day 219

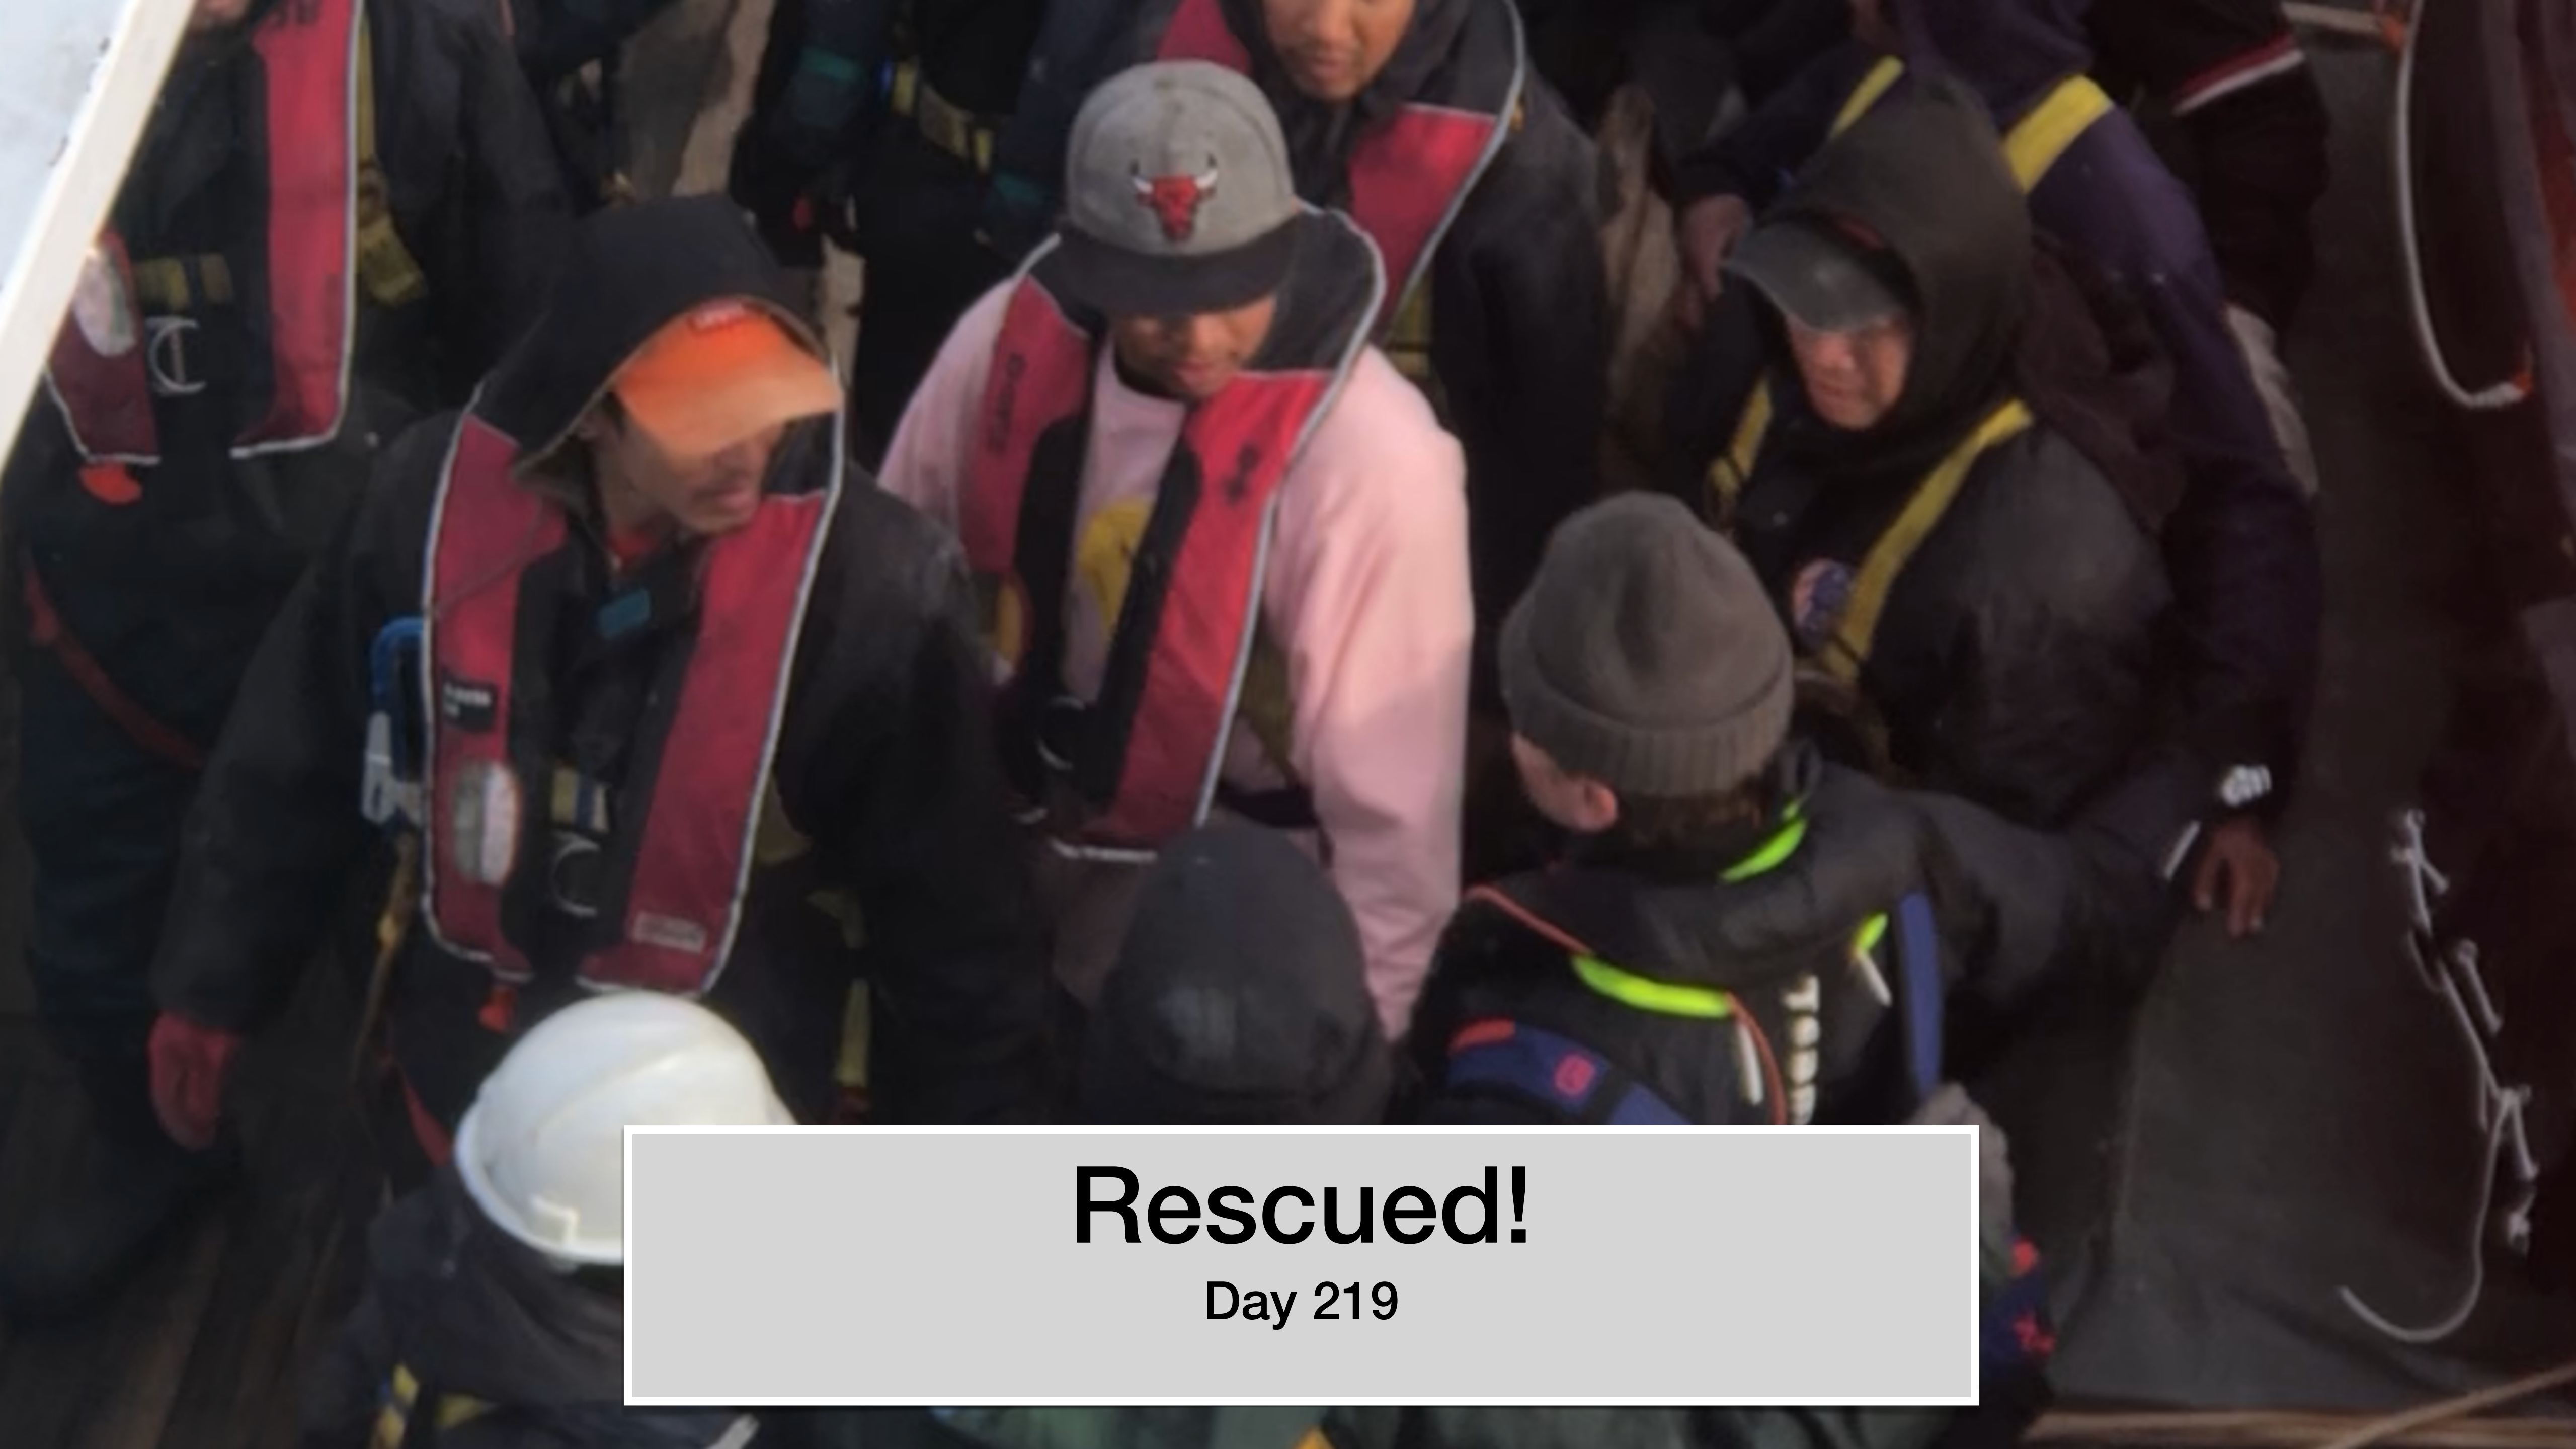

We're coming for you!
Day 219

A high-angle, close-up shot of a person on the deck of a yellow boat. The person is wearing a black beanie, a yellow and black wetsuit, and is looking down at something in their hands. A large, bright orange life raft is partially visible next to them. The boat is moving through dark blue, choppy water, with white foam from the wake visible. Various ropes and rigging are visible on the deck. The overall scene suggests a maritime or sailing context.

So where's the ladder?

Day 219

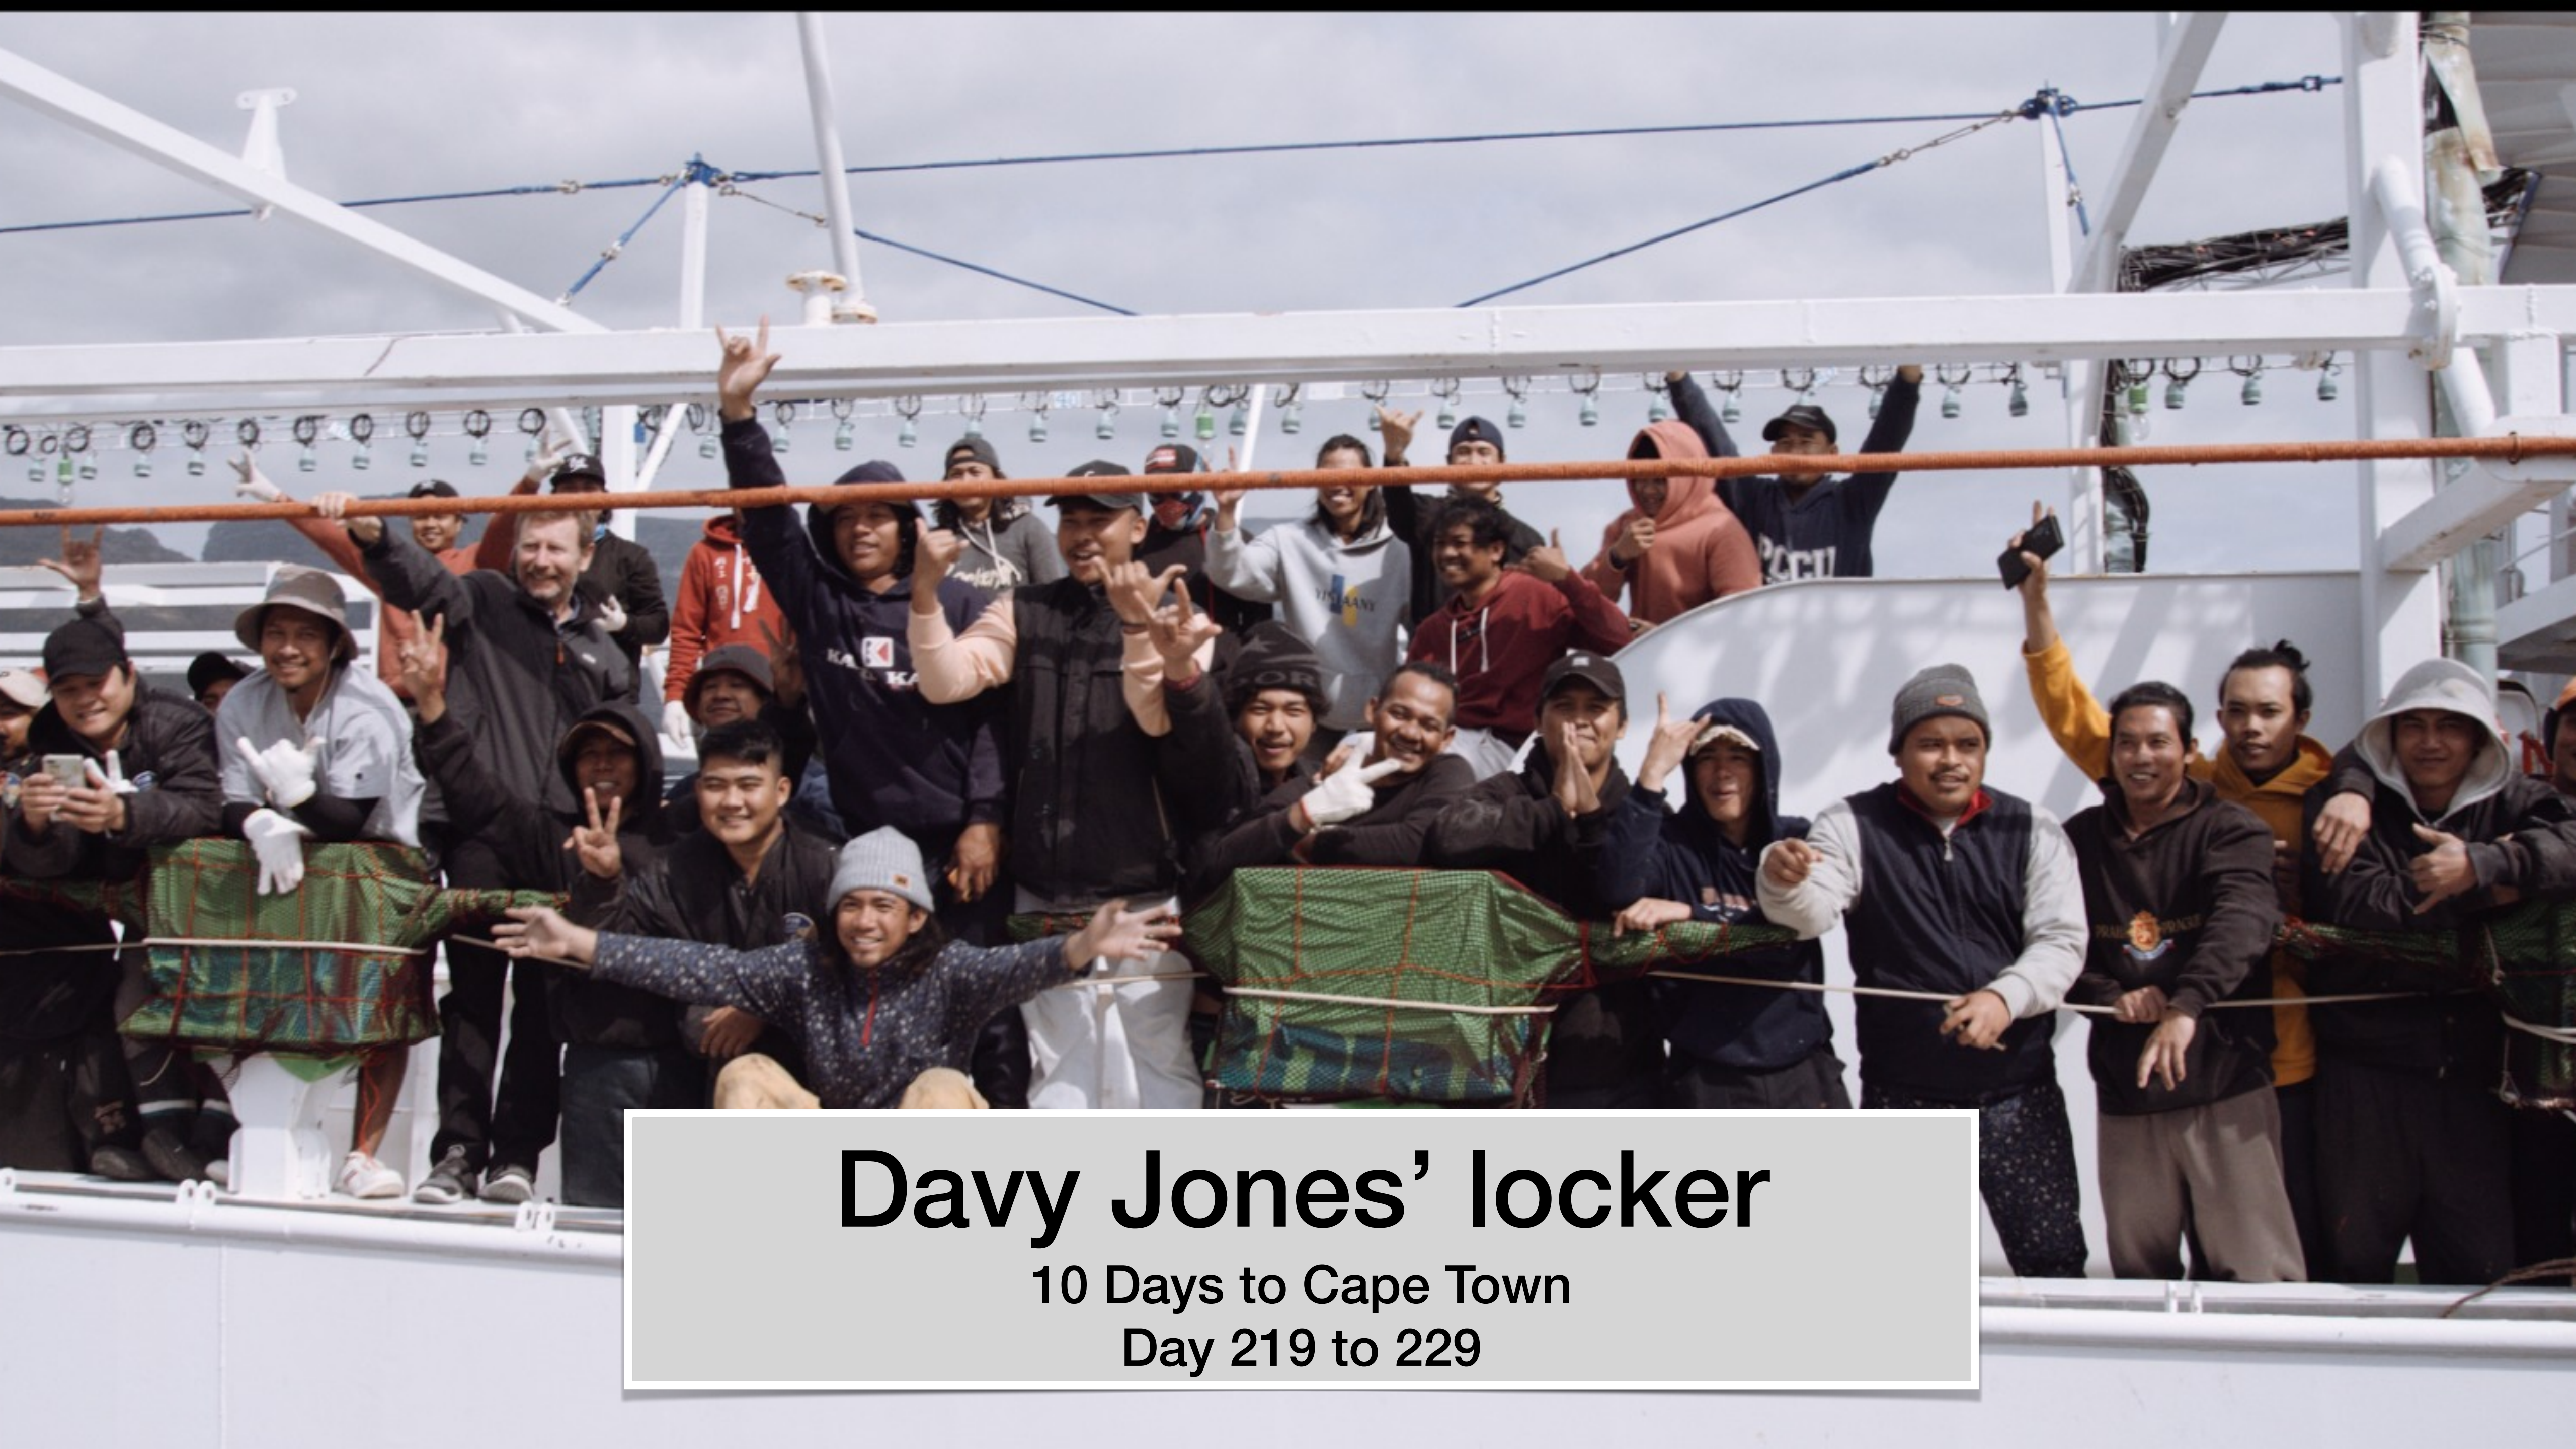

Rescued!

Day 219

A photograph showing a red boat named 'Puffin' being hoisted by a crane on the deck of a larger ship. A person in a black and orange safety suit is visible on the larger ship's deck, operating the crane. The boat is suspended in the air, and the sea is choppy. The larger ship's deck has green tarps and other equipment visible.
